1. Acceptance of Terms

By downloading, installing, accessing, or using Edgecipline, you confirm that you are at least 18 years of age and have the legal capacity to enter into a binding agreement. If you do not agree with any part of these Terms, you must not use the application.

These Terms apply to all users, including registered users and visitors. We reserve the right to update these Terms at any time, and your continued use of the app after changes constitutes acceptance of the revised Terms.

2. App Usage Rules

We reserve the right to remove content or suspend accounts that violate these rules without prior notice.

3. Trading Disclaimer — Important

EDGECIPLINE IS A JOURNALING AND SELF-IMPROVEMENT TOOL. IT DOES NOT PROVIDE FINANCIAL ADVICE, INVESTMENT ADVICE, OR TRADING RECOMMENDATIONS OF ANY KIND.

Always conduct your own research and, where appropriate, consult a qualified financial advisor before making any trading or investment decisions.

4. No Profit Guarantee

EDGECIPLINE MAKES NO REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, OR GUARANTEE — EXPRESS OR IMPLIED — THAT USING THIS APPLICATION WILL RESULT IN PROFITABLE TRADES OR IMPROVED TRADING PERFORMANCE.

- Improved journaling and self-discipline may contribute to better trading habits, but we cannot guarantee financial outcomes
- Market conditions, individual skill, capital management, and numerous external factors influence trading results
- Any testimonials or performance examples shown are not indicative of typical results
- You use this application with full understanding that trading involves inherent financial risk

5. AI Features Disclaimer

Edgecipline uses artificial intelligence to generate feedback, pattern analysis, and insights based on your trade journal entries.

- AI-generated content is informational only and does not constitute financial, trading, or investment advice
- AI outputs are generated based on patterns in your data and are not guaranteed to be accurate, complete, or suitable for your specific situation
- You should critically evaluate AI feedback and not rely on it as the sole basis for any trading decision
- AI models can make errors or provide output that is misleading — always apply your own judgment

The AI features in Edgecipline are designed to help you reflect on your trading behavior, not to direct your trading strategy or predict market outcomes.

- Location data

2. How We Use Your Data

Your data is used strictly to provide you with the features of Edgecipline:

- To authenticate your identity and maintain your account
- To store and display your trade journal entries and checklist responses
- To generate AI-powered feedback and performance insights from your trading data
- To provide analytics and performance tracking within the app
- To process your subscription and manage access to premium features
- To respond to your support requests
- To improve the reliability and features of the application

Edgecipline does NOT use your data for advertising, does NOT sell your data to third parties, and does NOT use your data to train general-purpose AI models.

3. Data Storage & Security

We use reputable cloud infrastructure to store your data securely:

Firebase (Google)

Used for user authentication and secure login management.

MongoDB Atlas

Used for storing trade journal entries, insights, checklists, and app data.

- All data is transmitted over encrypted HTTPS connections
- Authentication tokens and passwords are handled by Firebase's secure infrastructure
- Uploaded images are stored in secure cloud storage with access controls
- We regularly review security practices to protect your information

4. Third-Party Services

Edgecipline integrates with the following third-party services:

- Google Sign-In (Firebase Authentication) — for social login. Google's privacy policy governs how Google handles your Google account data.
- Firebase (Google Cloud) — for authentication infrastructure.
- MongoDB Atlas — for database storage.
- AI Services — to generate trading insights and feedback based on your inputs.

These services are bound by their own privacy policies. We encourage you to review their policies as they govern their use of data. We only share the minimum necessary data with these services to provide our features.

5. Data Sharing

We do not sell, rent, trade, or otherwise transfer your personal information to third parties for commercial purposes.

We may share data only in the following limited circumstances:

- With service providers (Firebase, MongoDB) strictly to operate the platform
- If required by applicable law, regulation, or valid legal process
- To protect the rights, property, or safety of Edgecipline, our users, or the public
- In the event of a business merger or acquisition — users will be notified

6. Your Rights

You have full control over your personal data:

- Access — You can view all your trade data, journal entries, and insights within the app at any time
- Correction — You can edit or update your account information and trade entries
- Deletion — You can delete individual trade entries or permanently delete your entire account and all associated data from within the app settings
- Data Portability — Contact us to request a copy of your data
- Withdrawal of Consent — You may stop using the app at any time; account deletion removes all stored data

To exercise any of these rights or for data-related requests, contact us at edgecipline@gmail.com.

7. Data Retention

- Your data is retained as long as your account remains active
- When you delete your account, all personal data — including trade entries, images, insights, and account details — is permanently deleted from our systems
- Payment and invoice records are retained after account deletion where required by law. These contain no personal information beyond an internal account identifier, which no longer identifies anyone once your account is removed
- Some anonymized, non-identifiable data may be retained for product improvement and analytics
- Backups may retain data for a limited period (up to 30 days) before permanent deletion

8. Children's Privacy

Edgecipline is not directed at individuals under the age of 18. We do not knowingly collect personal information from minors. If you believe a minor has provided us with personal data, please contact us immediately and we will delete the information.

9. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. When we make material changes, we will notify you by updating the "Last Updated" date at the top of this page and, where appropriate, through an in-app notification. Continued use of the app after changes constitute acceptance of the updated policy.

10. Contact Us

Review findings

Each item below compares a statement in the documents against the code, the permissions the app requests, or the services it actually sends data to. Ordered by how likely it is to matter at review.

The single most important one: the Play Data safety form and the Apple App Privacy label are both cross-checked against this policy. Findings 1, 2 and 5 are all cases where the policy says less than the app does — which is the specific shape of mismatch that gets a submission sent back.

01 SHOULD FIX

Privacy · §4 Third-Party Services

Several services the app actually uses are not disclosed

The policy names Firebase, MongoDB Atlas and a generic "AI Services". The app also sends data to: Sentry (crash reports, including IP address), Cloudinary (every uploaded trade screenshot), Firebase Cloud Messaging (push tokens), Resend (OTP and transactional email), and Google Gemini (the unnamed "AI Services" — your trade notes are sent to it). Razorpay applies once payments are switched on.

Why it matters: Play's Data safety form asks you to declare third-party sharing, and Apple cross-checks the App Privacy label against your policy. An omission here is the most common cause of a policy being rejected as inaccurate.

02 SHOULD FIX

Privacy · §1 What We Do NOT Collect

"We do not collect device identifiers" contradicts the app

The app collects an `x-device-id` per install and stores FCM push notification tokens in a DeviceToken collection. Both are device identifiers. The qualifier "for tracking purposes" is doing a lot of work here.

Why it matters: You will have to declare Device ID on the Play Data safety form. A form that says "collected" against a policy that says "not collected" is a direct contradiction reviewers do check.

03 SHOULD FIX

Terms · §6 Refund Policy

"All payments are final and non-refundable" cannot hold once you use store billing

With Apple In-App Purchase, refunds are handled by Apple and users request them from Apple directly — your terms cannot override that. Google Play has its own refund policy plus statutory rights. India's Consumer Protection Act also applies.

Why it matters: The "except where required by applicable law" carve-out softens it, but once billing runs through a store the clause is misleading. Reword to defer to the store's refund process for store-billed purchases.

04 SHOULD FIX

Terms · missing

No Apple-required EULA clauses

If you ship your own terms instead of Apple's standard EULA, Apple requires them to state that the agreement is between you and the user (not Apple), that Apple has no support or maintenance obligation, and that Apple is a third-party beneficiary entitled to enforce the terms.

Why it matters: Required by the Apple Developer Program License Agreement (Schedule A) whenever a custom EULA is used. Straightforward to add, and a known rejection trigger.

05 WORTH FIXING

Privacy · missing

Push notifications and camera access are never mentioned

The app requests notification permission and camera access (Android `CAMERA`, and the iOS `NSCameraUsageDescription` string added for submission). Neither appears anywhere in the policy.

Why it matters: Apple compares your usage-description strings and the App Privacy label against the policy. Permissions the app requests but the policy never explains read as undisclosed collection.

06 WORTH FIXING

Privacy · missing

IP addresses and server logs not disclosed

The backend records IP address with each session and login (visible in the auth diagnostics and request logs), and Sentry receives it too. The policy does not mention log data at all.

Why it matters: IP is personal data under both GDPR and India's DPDP Act. Cheap to disclose, awkward to be caught omitting.

07 WORTH FIXING

Terms · §6 Subscription & Payments

Describes billing the app currently cannot perform

Monthly / 3-Month / 6-Month plans are described as purchasable, but the paywall is switched off in the shipped build (`NEXT_PUBLIC_PAYMENTS_ENABLED=false`) and there is no `/pricing` route.

Why it matters: Not fatal — terms may describe future plans. But a reviewer reading "requires a paid subscription" and finding no way to pay may question it. Consider marking the section as applying "where subscriptions are offered".

"Cancel your subscription before deleting your account" has no cancel flow

The app has no subscription management or cancellation UI, so this instruction cannot be followed from inside the app.

Why it matters: Play expects account deletion not to strand an active subscription. Once billing is live, either add cancellation or cancel automatically on deletion — and say which.

Governing law names no jurisdiction

"Governed by applicable laws" and "submitted to the appropriate jurisdiction" identify nothing. As drafted the clause has close to no legal effect.

Why it matters: Name the country and the courts (e.g. "the laws of India, courts at "). Everything else in the app — INR pricing, IST scheduling, Indian Market module — points to India already.

No Indian data–protection framing and no grievance contact

India's DPDP Act 2023 and the IT Rules expect a named grievance contact for user complaints. The policy gives a general support address only.

Why it matters: Given an India–based operation and an Indian user base, naming a grievance officer and referencing the DPDP Act is the expected form.

A personal phone number is published

+91 98616 58463 appears at the bottom of both documents.

Why it matters: Intentional is fine — just confirm you want it public on a page the stores link to, since it will be scraped.

Dates now current, naming now consistent

Both documents read "Last Updated: August 6, 2026" and refer to "Edgecipline" throughout. The earlier "Edge Discipline" references are gone.

Why it matters: Noted as resolved — no action needed.
